Awards

- 2008 DoD Packaging Achievement and Excellence Award History:

Instituted in 1997 to recognize and honor the most outstanding individuals or organizations in the DoD packaging community that have significantly contributed to the packaging and preservation effort. The awards increase interest in packaging development, productivity and efficiency throughout the DoD and promote DoD packaging functions and accomplishments. These awards are jointly sponsored by the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the National Institute of Packaging, Handling and Logistics Engineering (NIPHLE).

Awards

- Winners of the 2008 DoD Packaging Achievement and Excellence Awards:
 - The Achievement Award Winner is the Preservation, Packaging, Packing, and Marking (PPP&M) Woodworking Team at Defense Distribution Depot, Oklahoma City, OK.
 - The Excellence Award Winner is the Unitized Group Ration-Express (UGR-E) Development Team at the US Army Natick Soldier Research, Development and Engineering Center, Natick, MA.

Awards

- 2008 Military Packaging Hall of Fame (HOF) Award History:

The Military Packaging Hall of Fame was established in May 1990 as a means to recognize those whose leadership and technical expertise have contributed significantly to the successful development of the industry. Hall of Fame membership is open to all military packaging professionals, whether formerly or currently employed by either government or industry.

Potential members are nominated by a group of experienced packaging professionals. Selection for entry into the Hall of Fame is based on the vote of a panel of 20 electors representing all facets of the military packaging community. Those who have been inducted are individuals who served in the Services, Defense Logistics Agency, General Services Administration and the private sector. The HOF Award is sponsored by the School of Military Packaging, Defense Ammunition Center, McAlester OK and NIPHLE.
